Q & A

Meet ProQuest Rialto

Rialto is a comprehensive academic marketplace designed for informed decisions and seamless, end-to-end workflows

Rialto is available for Alma libraries at no additional cost

Work Efficiently

Unification with Alma automates previously manual steps

Work Together

Easy to coordinate with staff through shared lists, real-time activity indicators, and more

Work With Ease

Simple to learn, navigate and use, with everything you need in one place

We'll Handle The Rest

Expert team of consultants support your journey every step of the way

We're Here to Support You Every Step of the Way

Simple and stress-free implementation

We leverage your library's existing Alma configurations to make implementation a smooth process with minimal effort required by the library

Ongoing Support

Trainings and consultations at the library's preferred frequency to establish best-practice workflows and provide trainings as needed on new features

Additional Purchasing Models and Features

Support for additional acquisition models that fit your collection strategy - including EBA, DDA, Selection Plans, and Title Alerts

"Easiest rollout of any product we've ever implemented."

Evidence Based Acquisition in Rialto

Efficient end-to-end management in one workflow

Seamless integration with existing acquisitions workflows

Innovative tools to monitor and select titles

Collaborative design promotes shared awareness of program activity

Smart Selection capabilities to aid end-of-program decisions

The screenshot displays the Rialto Evidence Based Acquisition (EBA) interface. On the left is a navigation sidebar with options like Alma, Market, Acquisitions, Resources, Fulfillment, Admin, and Analytics. The main area shows a list of titles under the heading 'Taylor & Francis (1 - 20 of 241)'. The list includes titles such as 'New Techniques of Grief Therapy: Bereavement and Beyond', 'Allegory Studies: Contemporary Perspectives', 'The EU security continuum: blurring internal and external security', and 'Discrimination at Work: The Psychological and Organizational Bases'. Each title entry shows its price (e.g., 180.00 USD), a 'Pin' button, and a 'Local usage' indicator. On the right, a summary panel for 'Taylor & Francis' shows the end date (Oct 6, 2021), a budget of 10,000 USD, and a 'Smart Selection' button.

“EBA in Rialto is so simplified. I don’t have to keep any spreadsheets – it’s all in Rialto. It really is a game changer.”

- University of Central Florida

What's New: Evidence-Based Acquisition

- 🔹 | Taylor & Francis weekly pool sync
- ⊕ | Sort EBA pool by COUNTER usage
- ☑ | Track past purchases with automatic POL and invoice creation
- ☁ | Upload file to pin title selections in bulk

Reading List Information in Holdings

Supports informed purchasing with reading list information at the ready

- While viewing marketplace results, users will now know when a title is on an active or future reading list
- Course information displays in a new panel section below the holdings
- Rialto searches in real-time, just like holdings

The screenshot displays a search results page for the book 'Textbook of Veterinary Diagnostic Radiology'. The main content area shows four items with their respective prices and 'Add to Cart' buttons. The first item is priced at 222.00 USD, the second at 158.99 USD, the third at 75.00 USD, and the fourth at 105.00 USD. Each item includes a checkbox, a small book icon, the title, author, and edition information. The first item also shows a 'Physical Material' icon and a '1 of 1 Available' status. To the right of the main list, there is a 'COURSES' section with a purple header and a shopping cart icon. It lists two courses: 'Final Year Core (BVMS110132022-3SS1SEM1)' and 'Clinical Foundation Course (Yr 3) (BVMS090132022-3SV1SEM1)'. Each course entry includes its citation status and the number of participants.

Item #	Title	Author	Edition	Price (USD)
