

Content Operations

Dear colleagues,

Thank you for participating in the first 2023 – Data Excellence at your service.

Join the webinar to learn about what Content Operations team has accomplished with the Data Excellence initiative since it started in 2022, and what are the implications on your everyday work with content in Ex Libris products.

Looking forward to seeing you on Tuesday, March 21, make sure to register to the right time zone:

EMEA/APAC: 8 am (Helsinki); 2 pm Singapore; 3 pm (Tokyo); 5 pm (Sydney) Register here

AMERICAS/EMEA: 8 am (San Francisco); 11 am (New York); 3 pm (London) Register here

The Ebook Central non-fiction book chapters are now available in CDI, and I am glad to announce that over 35 million records have been added to represent non-fiction book chapters published on ProQuest Ebook Central platform.

This number will keep increasing over time, as we harvest newly published chapters and add them to CDI.

And last, please sign up to the new content specific mailing listserv

<https://exlibrisusers.org/postorius/lists/content.exlibrisusers.org/>

Our goal is to provide a focused venue that supports communication, collaboration, and knowledge sharing between members of the Ex Libris user community.

I hope this list will facilitate a more holistic understanding of content issues and patterns across various products.

Another purpose of this list is to relieve product-specific lists (Alma, Primo, SFX and Summon) of content-related questions and to avoid cross-posting to several lists.

I would like to thank the content working group for launching this list for the benefit of all the community.

Starting April 2023 the content newsletter will be posted only in the new content listserv, so sign up so you don't miss out!

If you have any comments or feedback on this newsletter, please feel free to reach out to me directly.

Best,
Tamar
