Journal Search

Search for databases

To search for databases you can do the following:

- Enter keywords in the search box.
- Browse databases by category.

Database Search - Steps to configure

1. Determine and configure the category structure
 - a) Assign a MARC field to contain categories
 - b) Consider setting up a Controlled Vocabulary Registry
2. Ensure that the databases/collections you want to be searchable
 - a) Are associated with a descriptive (bibliographic) record that is not suppressed
 - b) Have a collection-level URL configured for linking to the database or collection
3. Create descriptive records and add categories to MARC field
4. Ensure 'Create DB Categories File' job is running
5. Enable Database Search in Links Menu
6. Consider adding local display and search fields to include new MARC field data

ABOUT THE TOPIC

Antarctica

Geography of Energy. Antarctica is the coldest, darkest, and least populated of the seven continents. If energy efficiency and renewable energy can be deployed widely here, it is hoped that they can be deployed on more populated and less isolated continents. Covering 8.6 million square miles (12.8 million square kilometers), Antarctica has a surface area of land 50 percent larger than the ...VIEW MORE
