

360 E-Resource Access, Management Services, and Ulrich's Services

API TERMS OF USE

ProQuest LLC ("ProQuest"), a Delaware limited liability company, owns and licenses 360 E-Resource Access and Management Services and the Ulrich's Services (the "Services"). In connection with the Services, ProQuest also offers an application programming interface service ("API") to enable subscribing institutions (each a "Customer") who have signed a license agreement ("License") to dynamically connect to the Services. "Data" means all data returned to you via the API from the Services. Your signature below and your use of the API and the Data constitutes your agreement to be bound by the following terms and conditions ("Terms of Use" or "TOU") as such terms may be updated from time to time on the ProQuest website (www.proquest.com). "Website" refers to the Customer's website or related applications. The words "you" and "your" (whether or not capitalized) refer to you personally if you are an individual and also to your organization, if it is a Customer or Company. Other capitalized terms shall have the meaning defined in the License.

1. License Grant During the Term, you have a limited, non-exclusive, non-assignable, non-transferable, non-sublicensable, royalty-free license to have access to and use the API, implement access to the API from your Website, and display Data, subject to your compliance with the TOU and the License.
2. Permitted Uses. You may use and reproduce, without right of distribution, the software code and/or URLs that allow you to create links and receive web search results, only for purposes that support your implementation of the Services on behalf of your library in accordance with its License. Specifically, you may use the API to: (i) enable your Website to obtain Data; (ii) make limited copies of the Data, solely as necessary to display it on your Website; and (iii) host and display limited Data on your Website. You are responsible for your own conduct and content while using the API and for any consequences of this use. All queries to the Data that you provide must be user initiated.
3. Restrictions. Your license is limited to making direct server calls to the API for purposes of displaying Data to your end users on your Website immediately upon receipt by your servers. Except as expressly permitted in these TOU or in the License, with respect to the Services, the Software, the API or any Data (collectively, "Content"), you shall not, nor shall you permit or authorize any other person to: (i) translate, reverse engineer, disassemble, decompile, make any other attempt to discover, or in any other way reproduce, modify, distribute, the software program source code (except to the extent this is authorized by applicable law notwithstanding this limitation), or harvest metadata from the Content; (ii) remove any proprietary notices, labels or marks from the Content; (iii) sell, sublicense, rent, lend, lease or transfer in any way any portion of the Content; (iv) communicate, redistribute or use the Content to provide services to other libraries or third parties or use or comingle the Content to produce other software products or to make copies of the Content, or for any other commercial use or promotional purpose; (v) copy, store, cache or retain any copies of the Data; (vi) use the Content in any manner that violates any law or regulation, including but not limited to infringing the intellectual property rights of ProQuest or any third party, or the rights of any person, including rights of privacy or publicity; (vii) utilize any computer hardware or software designed to defeat any protection device in the Content; (viii) use the API in a manner that constitutes excessive or abusive usage, including to execute denial of service attacks or perform automated searches against ProQuest systems, including but not limited to automated "bots", link checkers or other scripts, or otherwise interfere with or disrupt the Services, or servers or networks related to the Services, or disobey any policies of networks related to the Services; (ix) transmit any virus, worm, defect, Trojan horse, or any other item intended to destroy, surreptitiously interfere with, expropriate, or exert unauthorized control over any system or data or to defraud any person; or (x) hide or mask your identity, or the identity of your service, as it uses the API, including by failing to follow any identification conventions listed in the API documentation.
4. Proprietary Rights. All rights, title and interest in and to the Content, including without limitation documentation, metadata, and any and all new versions, releases, or modifications thereof, are owned by and shall remain with ProQuest and are protected by law. This Agreement shall not grant to Customer, you, or any other third party any right of ownership.
5. Term and Termination; Changes to TOU.
 - a. The duration of this license ("Term") is coterminous with your Customer License, unless earlier terminated as provided herein.
 - b. ProQuest may terminate your license to use the API and the Data immediately without notice due to your unauthorized use of the Services or failure to comply with the restrictions specified in Section 3.
 - c. Upon the termination or expiration of the License for any reason, the Services and your license to use the API and the Data shall terminate immediately.

d. ProQuest routinely adds, changes, improves, or updates the API and Data without notice. ProQuest reserves the right to change these TOU from time to time, and you are responsible for regularly reviewing these TOU. Your continued use of the API and/or Data after the effective date of such changes will constitute acceptance of and agreement to any such changes. If you do not agree with the TOU, you may stop using the API and/or Data at any time, without notice to ProQuest. ProQuest may release subsequent versions of the API and, while commercially reasonable efforts will be made to enable backwards compatibility, this cannot be guaranteed and hence continued use of the API may require you to adapt to the most recent version.

6. Limited Warranty. EXCEPT AS PROVIDED IN THE LICENSE, THE API AND DATA ARE PROVIDED “AS IS” AND “AS AVAILABLE” AND PROQUEST MAKES NO WARRANTIES, EXPRESS OR IMPLIED, INCLUDING WITHOUT LIMITATION, ANY WARRANTIES OF MERCHANTABILITY, FITNESS FOR A PARTICULAR PURPOSE, OR DAMAGE FOR DELETED DATA FROM ANY LIBRARY OPAC OR OTHER SYSTEM. WITHOUT LIMITING THE FOREGOING, PROQUEST DOES NOT WARRANT THAT THE USE OF THE API AND DATA WILL BE UNINTERRUPTED OR ERROR-FREE OR MAKE ANY WARRANTY AS TO THE AVAILABILITY OF THE API AND DATA, THE ACCURACY, TIMELINESS OR COMPLETENESS OF THE INFORMATION OR THE RESULTS OF YOUR USE OF THE API AND DATA. PROQUEST SPECIFICALLY DISCLAIMS ANY RESPONSIBILITY FOR DETERMINING THE COMPATIBILITY OF THE API AND DATA WITH ANY HARDWARE OR SOFTWARE NOT SUPPLIED BY PROQUEST AND MAKES NO WARRANTY WITH RESPECT TO THE OPERATION OF SUCH HARDWARE OR SOFTWARE WITH THE API AND DATA.

7. Limitation of Liability. ProQuest shall not be liable or deemed in default of the TOU or the License for any failure or delay or interruption in access to the API or any failure of any equipment or telecommunications resulting from any cause or circumstance beyond the reasonable control of ProQuest. The License shall state the maximum liability, if any, of ProQuest for any claim related to the API. IN NO EVENT SHALL PROQUEST BE LIABLE TO YOU FOR ANY INDIRECT, INCIDENTAL, CONSEQUENTIAL, PUNITIVE OR SPECIAL DAMAGES RELATED TO THE USE OF THE API AND DATA OR PROQUEST’ FAILURE TO PERFORM ITS OBLIGATIONS UNDER THE LICENSE, EVEN IF ADVISED OF THE POSSIBILITY OF SUCH DAMAGES, REGARDLESS OF NEGLIGENCE.

8. Miscellaneous.

- a. ProQuest and you are independent entities, and nothing in the TOU, or via use of the Services, shall directly or indirectly create a partnership, joint venture, agency, franchise, sales representative, or employment relationship between ProQuest and you.
- b. The TOU supersede any previous agreement and, together with the License Agreement, represent the entire agreement between ProQuest and you with respect to the Services. In the event of any conflict between the TOU and the License Agreement, the License Agreement shall govern and control. If any provision of the TOU is found invalid or unenforceable, the remainder of the TOU shall remain valid and enforceable according to its terms.
- c. Any notices must be sent to ProQuest LLC at: 789 East Eisenhower, P.O. Box 1346, Ann Arbor, MI 48106-1346 USA.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the parties’ duly authorized representatives have caused these Terms of Use to be executed as of the last date written below.
