- Product: Summon

Where can I find the Summon service release notes from years past?

The below information pertains to releases from years past. For information on the most recent releases and status updates, see Summon: Release Notes.

December 12, 2013

Enhancements

- Google Analytics Google Analytics has now been added to Summon 2.0. If you already have Google Analytics configured in the Settings page in the Summon Administration console, there is nothing further that you need to do for this to be activated.

- Topic Explorer Gale Virtual Reference collection has been added to the Topic Explorer. To configure the prioritization of this source or to disable, please contact Client Support.

- Disciplines Disciplines in the Discipline facet are now translatable via the Translations page in the Summon Administration Console. Disciplines have currently been translated into Czech, German, Italian, Russian, Spanish. Additional languages are in progress.

Bug Fixes

- More Filters Sorting the filters alphabetically in the More Filters pane will now sort based on the translated phrase rather than the English phrase.

- Advanced Search When a user switches to Advanced Search, any terms in the basic search will be carried over.

- Preview Pane Call Number will now be included in the preview pane display on the right hand side of the screen.

- Preview Pane The Pages field will now be showing the correct data in the preview pane display on the right hand side of the screen.

November 22, 2013

Enhancements

- Publication Date Facet - The date picker within the Publication Date facet will now allow the user to type in either 1) a year, 2) a month and a year, or 3) a day, month, year combination. The date selector will also be localized to the user's language. The publication date slider has also been improved with clear indicators as to the number of items in a given year as the user adjusts the slider.

- "Add Results Beyond" Filter - A new option now appears in the Summon 2.0 user interface that allows the user to select the "Add results beyond your library's collection" filter from within the search results page.
• Summon API Healthcheck Service - We will be introducing a new service for the Summon API that can be used for running health check queries. This allows those who have built their own application using the Summon API to ping the service to ensure it is ready to answer queries. Further details will be found on the Summon API Documentation Center.

Bug Fixes

• Facet Whitelisting - The whitelisting capabilities of facet values will now work as expected in Summon 2.0. This applies to the Library Location facet and the Institution facet. Additionally, this applies to the Content Type facet to ensure that the option Book / eBook always appears when there are books in the search results.

• Related Topics - The related topics in the Topic Explorer will now have the correct word casing rather than always be in lowercase.

Newly Indexed Content

• National Library of Norway Press - idunn.no, a database of 49 leading academic journals for the Nordic region.

• Oxford University Press - This release includes an additional resource from the OUP, the Oxford Biblical Studies Online (http://www.oxfordbiblicalstudies.com/) collection.

• ProQuest Video Curation - ProQuest's new service for the curation of video has now been setup in the Summon index. This new service will supply metadata and transcription for archival video as well as online hosting for subscribing/participating universities. We have ingested records from 8 video collections for discovery in Summon in this initial effort.

• RMIT University - Informit - We have included 78 RMIT abstract and indexing databases pertaining to agriculture, Asian studies, business, education, engineering, health, history, the humanities, law, media, science, the social sciences and technology in Summon. RMIT Publishing is a leading provider of online research specializing in content from Australia, New Zealand and the Asia Pacific region. There are over 3,855,000 records between the active and archive packages.

• UTB GmbH - The German publisher UTB has included their collection of 900+ ebooks in the humanities (http://studium.utb.de/)

October 31, 2013

Enhancements

• Language Auto-detection Configuration With the new Summon 2.0 user interface, the user's language is automatically detected from the web browser's language preference settings. This is now a configurable setting so that it can be enabled or disabled to force a specific language.

Bug Fixes

• Language Selector When the user changes the language of the User Interface the topic explorer will also change language.

• Publication Date Slider The slider for the publication date facet will not allow the user to slide beyond its boundaries and it will accurately align with the graph.

Newly Indexed Content

• American Institute of Aeronautics and Astronautics Journals This includes the scholarly journals from the American Institute of Aeronautics and Astronautics.
• Mybrary.ru - Mybrary.ru (http://www.mybrary.ru) markets 3 online collections: Law, Economics and Business (each consisting of approximately 600 books and/or journals) in Russia.

• NuriMedia - We have updated the data from NuriMedia, a Korean consortium, to have close to 1,500,000 records of book and journal content. This includes content from DBpia, KRpia, and BookRail.

October 11, 2013

Enhancements

- Page Loading Animation When a user changes a search, a page loading animation appears in order to provide a visual cue to the user to inform them that the search is processing.
- Chat Widget - The chat widget is available in Summon 2.0 with some user experience improvements.
- Summon Topics - Dutch, French, and Korean topics are on the list of supported languages.

Bug Fixes

- Logo The library logo in Summon 2.0 is linked to the URL defined in the Summon Administration Console.
- Custom Image Link - The custom image link is available in Summon 2.0.
- RefWorks Exporting - Saved citations in Summon 2.0 are able to be exported to RefWorks directly.
- Content Spotlighting - When clicking on the header and viewing scoped results, the content type will now be automatically checked.
- Configurable Facets Ordering Libraries can now configure the default order of facets for Summon 2.0.

Newly Indexed Content

- Longwoods Publishing - Longwoods publishes healthcare research, reports, reviews, commentaries and news from and for academics, scientists, clinicians, policymakers, administrators and pundits. All of Longwoods publications are a combination of free access (columns, editorials) and paid access (research).
- Schweizerbart/Borntraeger The collection of German Life Science journals from Schweizerbart Science Publishers and Borntraeger Science Publishers contains about 24 journals. Schweizerbart und Borntraeger are scholarly publishing houses. http://www.schweizerbart.de/
- Almanhal - They are the industry’s only provider of full-text searchable electronic databases of peer-reviewed and copyright protected Arabic publications. We’ve indexed almost 10,600 records from eBook Collections in 10 main subject areas, Journal Collections (database with over 36 journals), eReports Collections (daily, weekly and monthly reports back to 2008), and eDissertations Database.
- Askew & Holts Contains academic and trade books of the VLe ebook platform for universities, colleges and schools, primarily in the UK. We have indexed almost 220,000 records.
- BCS, The Chartered Institute for IT - This is the entire eWIC collection of scholarly proceedings. (http://ewic.bcs.org/category/15362) Content is available for the eWIC series (ISSN 1477 9358) from 1995 to current.
- Bentham Science Books - We have added eBook metadata and abstracts to the index for almost 5000 records from Bentham Science.
- Bloomsbury Drama The Drama Online collection, an online resource for plays, critical analysis and performance, developed in partnership with Faber and Faber Ltd.
- Chadwyck Healey - LION Biographies.
• Federal Reserve Archive of Economic History (FRASER) - Provides access to the U.S. economic history particularly the history of the Federal Reserve System through digitization of documents related to the U.S. financial system. FRASER provides digital access to historic policy documents including publications of the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System and the District Federal Reserve Banks, statements and speeches of Fed policymakers, archival materials of Fed policymakers and more. We have indexed over 85,000 records.

• GESIS-SOLIS - Key German social science resources SOLIS and SOFIS have been indexed in Summon. SOLIS has bibliographic records since 1945 with links to over 25,000 full text records (http://www.gesis.org/en/services/research/solis-social-science-literature-information-system/) and totals about 100,000 records.

• Lexxion Verlagsgesellschaft mbH We have indexed the full text of their entire offering of 12 journals in Summon. As a legal publishing company, Lexxion offers both professional journals and books closely related to legal practice.

• National Research Council of Canada - The NRC Archive is an online repository containing 53675 publication citations and providing access to 11511 full-text publications. (http://nparc.cisti-icist.nrc-cnrc.gc.ca/npsi/ctrl?action=vwsts)

• Remedica Medical Education - A UK-based publisher of approximately 28 peer-reviewed journals for medical education.

• Wolters Kluwer Health - The entire journal offering of approximately 370 medical journals from Wolters Kluwer Health Medical Research/Lippincott Williams & Wilkins/Ovid Technologies have been indexed in Summon. Wolters Kluwer Health is a leading provider of information for professionals and students in medicine, nursing, allied health and pharmacy.

• Digital Library of Georgia - The gateway to Georgia’s history and culture found in digitized books, manuscripts, photographs, government documents, newspapers, maps, audio, video, and other resources. The Digital Library of Georgia connects users to a million digital objects in more than 200 collections from 60 institutions and 100 government agencies. Based at the University of Georgia Libraries, the Digital Library of Georgia is an initiative of GALILEO, the state's virtual library. We have indexed over 167,625 metadata records. (http://dlg.galileo.usg.edu)

• National Library of Wales - The collection includes about 50 titles, complete runs of each title are included; the most recent issue available depends on the publisher, and vary from title to title. Occasional papers, Index volumes and Monographs are sometimes included. There are over 76,710 metadata records and over 57,000 full text records that have been indexed.

July 11, 2013

Enhancements

- Summon 2.0 preview As previously announced this release includes the first opportunity to preview the new Summon 2.0 interface and associated features. You can access the preview site for your library at http://yourlibrarypreview.summon.serialssolutions.com, where "your library" is the same as the URL prefix of your current Summon site.

- API lightweight Response There is a new parameter for the API s.light. This new parameter allows the application to specify a lightweight response as true/false. A lightweight response removes commonly unused data such as table of content, multiple abstracts and cited references allowing the response to be more lightweight. More details can be found here: http://api.summon.serialssolutions.com/help/api/search/parameters/light-weight.

January 29, 2013

Enhancements

- Exclude Citation Online - With the increase in A&I content being loaded into the Summon index, Summon will now provide the ability for you to opt-out of the display of "Citation Online" records in the search results. We heard from many of you that want to keep Summon focused to Full Text Online and Library Catalog content and are only interested in exposing Citation Online content to users when they check the "Add results beyond your library's collection" option. With this release, the Summon Administration Console will have an option to allow you to exclude these Citation Online records from the search results. Please note: this change will take 24-72 hours to process. Learn about the setting here.
• Word Stemming - Some common proper nouns in the English language that end in 's' or 'es' will not be stemmed with user searches.

• A&I Details Page - The primary (orange) button can now be customized to either point the user to the print journal in the catalog ("Get Journal Article") or to point the user to a request service ("Request"). Changing the primary (orange) button will swap functionality with the secondary (gray) button. Read about the feature here, and learn about settings here.

Bug Fixes

• A&I Details Page - The page will ensure to show the print access of the journal when available in the "Access this Journal Article in" section as well as link the user to the print edition over the electronic edition.

Index Enhanced Direct Linking

As of the 2.0.10 release on Nov. 15, the Summon service includes Index-Enhanced Direct Linking (IEDL) to make the end-to-end discovery to delivery experience more reliable and rewarding for end users.

Since its inception, the Summon service has been about more than just discovering relevant content. Access-getting to the actual content—is a critical component of the process. Until now, the Summon service has relied on direct links and enhancing OpenURL outbound links to connect users to content.

Now, Serials Solutions introduces a new linking technology-Index-Enhanced Direct Linking. This new technology leverages publisher provided information in the Summon index along with the Serials Solutions knowledgebase in order to enable users to click-through directly to more full text content than previously possible with OpenURL linking alone. This advancement offers the reliability of direct linking coupled with the intelligence of appropriate copy selection and Serials Solutions' rights-based holdings information for your library.

With Index-Enhanced Direct linking, users will be able to link directly from the Summon service to targets from more than representing hundreds of millions of journal articles, e-books, digital collections and other content. Currently, Summon uses direct links only for unique content hosted on a single platform-mainly content types not supported by OpenURL linking such as audio recordings from Naxos Music Library or video recordings from Alexander Street Press. With this release, the Summon service will greatly expand the number of direct linking targets—including content subscribed to from more than one source. Libraries will be able to prioritize preferred link targets for content from providers participating in Index-Enhanced Direct Linking, just as libraries prioritize preferred link targets in an OpenURL link resolver.

What does my library need to do to take advantage of this new technology?

- If your library uses the Summon hosted user interface, the new functionality is completely enabled with the release and no administrative action is required to enable it.
- If your library uses the Summon API, you will need to migrate to a new version of the API in order to benefit from this new linking technology. The current version of the API will continue to be supported in order to give your library time to make the migration.
- Your library should also make certain your proxy configuration files include the domains for the direct links, see Support Center for more information.
- You will want to define the prioritization of the Direct Linking sources, more information on this will be available closer to the release date.
• In the near future, we will make click-through reports available for index-enhanced direct links. Libraries will need to include these reports in their normal workflow for evaluating resource usage. The click-through reports will also be used to inform improvements to the Summon service.

• Additional FAQ’s may be found.

The Summon service will continue to utilize OpenURL and your link resolver for connecting users to full text from content providers or content sources that are not yet available with direct linking.

With this first release of Index-Enhanced Direct Linking, there will be on average a 20% increase in search results from the Summon service linking directly to full text-evidence of cases where direct links represent the most reliable linking path for the target content. As more content providers work with Serials Solutions to enable direct linking, they will be added to the list of.

We are excited to deliver Index-Enhanced Direct Linking to advance the quality of linking as it relates to the end-to-end user experience with the Summon service. This new technology will greatly reduce link failure points and ensure that the Summon service fulfills its promise of not only helping users to discover, but to get to content-ultimately meeting user expectations.

Nov. 15, 2011, Release Summary

Index Enhanced Direct Linking (IEDL) is a new technology that leverages publisher-provided information in the Summon index along with Serials Solutions’ 360 KB knowledgebase. IEDL enables users to click-through directly to more full-text content than previously possible with OpenURL linking alone.

• ProQuest:
  ◦ If your library has not migrated to new ProQuest platform in the ProQuest Admin Console, direct links go to the legacy platform. Read more about.
  ◦ If your library has migrated to the new ProQuest platform in the ProQuest Admin Console, direct links go to the new platform.

• API Users
  • To get IEDL via the API, your library must switch to the new API.
  • The old API will continue to work after release, but without IEDL capabilities.

Google Analytics can be enabled via the Administration Console and tracks your Summon instance. A Google Analytics account and code is required prior to enabling this feature.

API Features: Database Recommender and User Role have been added to the Summon service API:

• Database Recommender allows the maximum number of recommendations to be configurable via a new parameter "s.mr".
• User Role allows the control of authenticated users vs. unauthenticated users via the "s.role" parameter.

RefWorks: Exporting capabilities to RefWorks for off-campus users is fully functional.
